Better not mess with Little Leroy LeRouge
when he's got on his favorite frilly red riding hood! It makes him feel happier
than a pig in mud, more special than a birthday cake, and mighty as a firecracker. Nothing's gonna stop him from being himself....Not even a big ol' bully of a WOLF!

ABOUT THIS BOOK

The illustrations for this book were done in gouache, pencil, and ink on Borden & Riley Paris paper. This book was edited by Andrea Spooner and designed by Véronique Lefèvre Sweet. Little Leroy LeRouge had a mighty fine collection of coats.

But his favorite was a little red riding hood that his sweet ol' Moo Moo gave him.

"You know, I usually only see frills and bows like that on girls' clothes," said the wolf.

"And you know, I usually don't talk to strangers," said Little Red right back.
"Guess we're both rule breakers."
He waved goodbye and skipped away.

"Like a firecracker," agreed Little Red.

"We can agree on two things," said Little Red. "It's lunchtime." He took that wolf's paw in his hands and gave it a mighty little squeeze. "And I can smell a pot of Moo Moo's chili cooking."

"You mean...you wanna gobble up a bowl with me?" whispered the wolf, suddenly shy as a butterfly.

"You've gotta get rid of that shoe poo taste somehow!" Little Red grinned. "And there's nothing a great big bowl of lunch can't fix among friends."

"Friends?" the wolf asked, squeezing Little Red's hands right back.
